

Mick Harte Was Here

By Barbara Park

Her whole world has been turned upside down....How could someone like Phoebe's brother die? Mick Harte was one of the neatest kids you'd ever want to meet—the kid who freaked his mom out by putting a ceramic eye in a defrosted chicken; who went trick-or-treating as Thomas Crapper, the inventor of the modern day flush toilet; who did a wild solo dance in front of the whole school.

Mick was also the kid who would still be alive now—if he'd only worn his bicycle helmet....

Using Mick Harte Was Here to promote helmet use and bike safety

- 🚲 Provide a set of 30 books to local schools for classroom use in grades 4-7. Free *Teacher's Guide available. Encourage use in April before Bike Safety Month in May.
- 🚲 Promote the adoption of school helmet policies and annual bulk helmet purchase campaigns.
 - 🚲 Principals and School Board Members
 - 🚲 Annual helmet purchase campaign committee members
 - 🚲 Parents, teachers, crossing guards and other school staff
- 🚲 Say thank you or provide encouragement to community members and professionals taking action on bicycle safety
 - 🚲 Bike rodeo staff
 - 🚲 Teachers who have invited bike safety experts into the classroom
 - 🚲 Bike safety experts who provide safety education
 - 🚲 Law enforcement personnel
 - 🚲 Traffic judges and commissioners who encourage enforcement
 - 🚲 Local decision makers on bike facilities
- 🚲 Use as a raffle prize at 'train the trainer' events
- 🚲 Use as a prize for contests
- 🚲 Provide copies to your public and school libraries

Reading Level	4.8	$4.99	Quantity Discounts available, ask for "Special Sales"
Pages	88
Chapters	9	10-49	30%	500-999 55%
1995	Random House Publishers	50-99	35%	1000+ 60%
(800) 733-3000	ISBN 0-679-88203-0	100-499	50%	plus freight and non-returnable

